

PUU O MAHUKA HEIAU

4 miles northeast of Haleiwa on Hawaii Route 83, Oahu

The largest surviving heiau on Oahu, this is a platform-type luakini temple with a low-walled court. Relatively intact, it measures approximately 570 feet by 170 feet. In 1792 three men from Captain George Vancouver's ship, HMS Daedalus, may have been sacrificed here. The property is now a state park.
